Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Public Engagement: In addition to providing critical direct services, ROOTS' founding vision includes a dedication to the development of a stable and comprehensive network of youth and young adult services as well as the need for systems change, both locally and nationally. Our Public Engagement program expended significantly in 2016 with the addition of anti-oppression programming. It is tragic that young people from communities of color and who are LGBTQ are disproportionately likely to require our services, and ROOTS strives to be an anti-racist and pro LGBTQ organization to help overcome these systems of oppression.

In addition, many of our management staff (particularly the Executive Director and Shelter Director) spend a significant amount of time in external meetings focused on systemwide continuum of care issues and a portion of their salary is allocated to this program to account for the time they spend on this kind of collaborative work.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

The Board reviews the Executive Director's salary every year during the budget process. We used to also use the Nonprofit Wage/Benefits survey but this has gotten considerably more expensive in recent years. For the Executive Director, our Board usually looks at Guidestar to determine wages based on the compensation of similar local organizations.
